DETAILED ACTION

Allowable Subject Matter

1. Claims 1-22 are allowed.
2. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:
  - a. Applicant discloses an invention relates to digital contents download services, and more particularly, to a method of superdistribution of digital contents through download services. Applicant's invention is novel and innovative in the sense that it provide a digital contents superdistribution system and a method of distributing digital contents which allow a person who legally receives a download of digital contents to distribute the downloaded contents and to be offered a predetermined portion of profits resulting from distribution of the downloaded contents. Furthermore, Applicant's system is provided such that if the copy of the digital contents distributed by the first user computer are executed on the second user computer, the second user computer accesses the server computer due to a failure of a security check on the security code set on the copy of the digital contents, and if the second user computer accesses the server to make payment for the copy of the digital contents, a predetermined compensation is offered to a first user of the first user computer who has distributed the copy of the digital contents received by the second user computer.
